CHAPTER ONE

Diriyah

The easterly breeze of the Najd,
be it blowing at dawn
or under the midnight sky, rustles the fragrant herbs
like a fragrant camphor cloud of musk.

Najdi Folk Poem

A RICH PAST & a glittering future

Diriyah, the City of Earth,
is the cradle of a nation.
It speaks of a deeply celebrated culture and a limitless promise.

It can be found in the way sunlight waltzes through a Najdi furjat or how the scent of oud can linger unforgettably from day to day.

In Diriyah, among centuries-old mud-brick structures and a lush, life-giving wadi, a global city makes its mark.

CROSSROADS of vision and history

Diriyah is where dreams and ideas are molded into reality through modest ingenuity and inspired vision.

DIRIYAH, the City of Earth

The magnetic hum of Diriyah hints at the mix of prestige and heritage that flourishes in the City of Earth.

This purifying wadi transforms Raffles Residences Diriyah into an environment unlike anywhere in the Kingdom—one that will enrich, enhance, and elevate the everyday.

MODERN EASE, sumptuous living

At Raffles Residences Diriyah, a mosaic of intricate craftsmanship and sumptuous living echoes the City of Earth. Discreetly soaring above Wadi Hanifah, the suites, duplexes, and private villas enjoy a privileged perch over a verdant wadi that has breathed life into the region since time immemorial.

Each residence is designed with at least one private terrace and is fully furnished with stunning, hand-picked pieces that offer a tender reflection on glamour.

BENEATH AN ENDLESS SKY

Under the glittering night sky, Raffles Residences Diriyah stretches across four distinct plots to offer the ultimate in refined living. As if in fated conversation with the cosmos, each prized section of homes comes with an enviable address along the energizing lushness of Wadi Hanifah.

The Suites

Subtle and of-the-earth from the outside, these spacious suites tell a story of contemporary living inside. Elegant and artistic one-to-three-bedroom homes reflect the timeless elegance of the City of Earth. Warm tones, generous blueprints that start at 140 square meters, and thoughtful pops of gentle glamour via texture and shine create homes that complement the Najdi spirit of Diriyah.

The Duplexes

The elevated grandeur of Raffles Residences Diriyah's three-or-four-bedroom duplexes offers a style of living unique in the region. These two-floor havens excite with ample outdoor spaces—on both levels—ideal for quiet reflection or as the setting for a joyous celebration. Some are equipped with a private pool for those seeking a truly immersive retreat. A beguiling mix of design elements inspired by both heritage and modernity keeps each duplex rooted in Najdi legacy and Saudi ingenuity.

These high-end homes offer both innovation and heritage that can be discerned in the details: fine-grained timber, natural stonework, masterfully crafted moldings, and rich textiles. The eye-catching interplay between the earthen façade that pays homage to Najdi design and the modern-day Saudi artwork throughout further speaks to the enduring nature of the Kingdom's creativity.

The Villas

Destined to be among the most coveted homes in the region, Raffles Residences Diriyah's two exclusive villas forge a peerless take on luxury living thanks to an array of high-gloss amenities infused with heritage design details. Outside, picture-perfect views of Wadi Hanifah are savored on precisely manicured garden terraces. These villas are the very definition of a modern sanctuary.
